Re: Caleb L. McGillvary v. Ronald Reiz, et al.
Civil Action No. 3:22-cv-6430-MAS-JBD

Dear Judge Day:

I represent non-party New Jersey Department of Corrections ("NJDOC") in connection with a subpoena served on NJDOC by Plaintiff Caleb L. McGillvary.

I am writing in accordance with the Court's February 6, 2025 Order (ECF No. 87) in which the Court directed NJDOC to file a letter apprising the Court of the status of its search for logbook entries from certain dates specified by Plaintiff. Please note that I received Plaintiff's list of dates on February 27, 2025.

I have provided the dates to NJDOC, which has searched its records and located three (3) logbooks that may contain information responsive to Plaintiff's subpoena. NJDOC is presently in the process of photocopying and digitizing the pages for the dates identified by Plaintiff. Once that process is completed, the digitized pages will be sent to me to review for relevant information pertaining to Plaintiff, if any, redact irrelevant information such as information pertaining to other incarcerated persons (“IPs”), and to prepare the documents for production. I expect to receive the digitized records sometime next week and to have the documents ready for production (assuming they contain relevant information pertaining to Plaintiff) within thirty (30) days thereafter.

I also discussed with NJDOC whether other responsive records might be available, such as travel logs or movement lists. Based upon representations from NJDOC, I understand there are no travel logs or lists that would contain responsive information that are in the possession of NJDOC for the relevant time period.

I will file a follow-up letter with the Court once I have reviewed the digitized records from NJDOC and/or relevant records have been produced.

Should the Court have any questions or concerns, do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW J. PLATKIN
